Section A
I. Bilateral Safeguard Measures

Article 7.1: Definitions

For the purposes of this Section:

Bilateral safeguard measures means a safeguard measure described in Article 7.2;

Domestic industry means, with respect to an imported good, the producers as a whole of the like or directly competitive goods operating within the territory of a Party, or those producers whose collective output of the like or directly competitive goods constitutes a major proportion of the total domestic production of those goods;

Serious injury means a significant overall impairment in the position of a domestic industry;

Threat of serious injury means serious injury that, on the basis of facts and not merely on allegation, conjecture, or remote possibility, is clearly imminent; and

Transition period, in relation to a particular product, means the period from the entry into force of this Agreement until 5 years after the date on which the customs duties on that product are to be eliminated or reduced in accordance with Annex 2 (Schedules of Tariff Commitments), which shall not exceed 15 years starting from the date of entry into force of the Agreement in any circumstance.

Article 7.2: Application of Safeguard Measures

1. If, as a result of the reduction or elimination of a customs duty under this Agreement, an originating good of the other Party is being imported into the territory of a Party in such increased quantities, in absolute terms or relative to domestic production, and under such conditions as to cause or threaten to cause serious injury to the domestic industry producing a like or directly competitive good, the Party may, to the extent necessary to prevent or remedy the serious injury to its domestic industry and to facilitate its domestic industry's adjustment:

   (a) suspend the further reduction of any rate of customs duty on the good provided for under this Agreement; or

(b) increase the rate of customs duty on the good to a level not to exceed the lesser of:

(i) the most-favoured nation applied rate of customs duty on the good in effect at the time the safeguard measure is taken; or

(ii) the base rate of customs duty specified in the Schedules included in Annex 2 (Schedules of Tariff Commitments) pursuant to Article 2.4 (Reduction or Elimination of Customs Duties).

2. The Parties understand that neither tariff rate quotas nor quantitative restrictions are permissible forms of a safeguard measure.

Article 7.3: Notification and Consultation

1. A Party shall immediately deliver a written notice to the other Party upon:

(a) initiating an investigation referred to in Article 7.4 relating to serious injury or threat of serious injury and the reasons for it;

(b) making a finding of serious injury or threat of serious injury caused by increased imports;

(c) applying or extending the imposition of a bilateral safeguard measure; and

(d) taking a decision to modify, including to progressively liberalise, a bilateral safeguard measure.

2. A written notice referred to in subparagraph 1 (a) shall include:

(a) a precise description of the originating good subject to the investigation including its heading and subheading under the Harmonized System and the national nomenclature of the Party;

(b) a summary of the reason for the initiation of the investigation; and

(c) the date of the initiation of the investigation and the period of investigation.

3. A Party shall provide to the other Party a copy of the public version of the report by its competent authority that is required under Article 7.4 1. The provided report to the other Party shall be in English.

4. A written notice referred to in subparagraphs 1(b) through (d) shall include:

(a) a precise description of the originating good subject to the bilateral safeguard measure including its heading and subheading under the Harmonized System and the national nomenclature of the Party;

(b) evidence of the serious injury or threat of serious injury caused by increased imports of the originating good of the Party as a result of the reduction or elimination of a customs duty pursuant to this Agreement;

(c) a precise description of the proposed bilateral safeguard measure;

(d) the proposed date of the introduction of the bilateral safeguard measure, its expected duration, and, if applicable, a timetable for the progressive liberalisation of the bilateral safeguard measure referred to in Article 7.5.3; and

(e) in the case of an extension of the bilateral safeguard measure, evidence that the domestic industry concerned is adjusting.

5. A Party proposing to apply or extend a bilateral safeguard measure shall provide adequate opportunity for prior consultations with the other Party, with a view to, inter alia, reviewing the information provided under paragraphs 2 and 4 that has arisen from the investigation referred to in Article 7.4, exchanging views on the bilateral safeguard measure, and reaching an understanding on ways to achieve the objective set out in Article 7.7.

Article 7.4: Investigation Procedures

1. A Party shall apply a safeguard measure only following an investigation by its competent authority in accordance with Article 3 and Article 4.2 of the Safeguards Agreement. To this end, Article 3 and Article 4.2 of the Safeguard Agreement are incorporated into and made part of this Agreement, mutatis mutandis.

2. Each Party shall ensure that its competent authority complete the investigation referred to in paragraph 1 within one year following its date of initiation.

Article 7.5: Scope and Duration of Bilateral Safeguard Measures

1. Neither Party shall apply a safeguard measure:

   (a) except to the extent, and for such time, as may be necessary to prevent or remedy serious injury and to facilitate adjustment;

   (b) for a period exceeding two years, except that the period may be extended by up to one year if the competent authority of the importing Party determine, in conformity with the procedures specified in this Article, that the measure continues to be necessary to prevent or remedy serious injury and to facilitate adjustment and that there is evidence that the industry is adjusting, provided that the total period of application of a safeguard measure, including the period of initial application and any extension thereof, shall not exceed three years; or

   (c) beyond the expiration of the transition period.

2. No bilateral safeguard measure shall be applied to the import of an originating good for a period of one year from the date of commencement of the tariff reduction or elimination for that originating good provided for under this Agreement.

3. No safeguard measure shall be applied again to the import of a particular originating good that has been previously subject to such measure for a period of time equal to the duration of the previous safeguard measure, provided that the period of non-application is at least two years.

4. In order to facilitate adjustment in a situation where the expected duration of the safeguard measure is over one year, the Party applying the safeguard measure shall progressively liberalised at regular intervals during its period of application.

5. When a Party terminates a safeguard measure, the rate of customs duty for the originating good subject to that safeguard measure shall be the rate that, according to the Party's Schedules in Annex 2 (Schedules of Tariff Commitments), would have been in effect but for that safeguard measure.

Article 7.6: Provisional Safeguard Measures

1. In critical circumstances where delay would cause damage which it would be difficult to repair, a Party may apply a provisional safeguard measure, which shall take the form of the measures set out in Article 7.2 pursuant to a preliminary determination by its competent authority that there is clear evidence that imports of an originating good from the other

Party have increased as the result of the reduction or elimination of a customs duty under this Agreement, and such increased imports have caused or are threatening to cause serious injury to a domestic industry of the importing Party.

2. Before a Party's competent authority may make a preliminary determination, the Party shall publish a public notice setting forth how interested parties, including importers and exporters, may obtain a non-confidential copy of the application requesting a provisional safeguard measure, and shall to the extent practicable, provide interested parties adequate opportunity after the date it publishes the notice to submit evidence and views regarding the application of a provisional safeguard measure.

3. The applying Party shall notify the other Party prior to applying a provisional safeguard measure and shall initiate consultations immediately after the provisional safeguard measure is applied.

4. The duration of any provisional safeguard measure shall not exceed 200 days, during which period the Party applying that provisional safeguard measure shall comply with the requirements of Article 7.4.

5. The Party shall promptly refund any tariff increases collected if the investigation described in Article 7.4 (1) does not result in a finding that the requirements of Article 7.2 are met.

6. A Party may not apply a provisional safeguard measure until at least 45 days after the date its competent authority initiates the investigation.

Article 7.7: Compensation

1. A Party proposing to apply or extend a bilateral safeguard measure shall, in consultation with the other Party, provide to the other Party mutually agreed, adequate means of trade compensation in the form of concessions having substantially equivalent trade effects or equivalent to the value of the additional customs duties expected to result from the measure. The Party applying a bilateral safeguard measure shall provide the opportunity to consult within 30 days of the date on which the bilateral safeguard measure was applied.

2. If the consultations referred to in paragraph 1 do not result in an agreement on trade compensation within 30 days of the commencement of such consultations, the other Party may suspend the application of substantially equivalent concessions to the trade in goods of the Party applying the bilateral safeguard measure.

3. A Party who intends to suspend the application of concessions shall deliver a written notice to the other Party applying the bilateral safeguard measure at least 30 days before it suspends the application of concessions in accordance with paragraph 2.

4. The right to suspend the application of concessions in accordance with paragraph 2 shall not be exercised for the first two years during which the bilateral safeguard measure is in effect, provided that the bilateral safeguard measure has been applied as a result of an absolute increase in imports and that such a bilateral safeguard measure conforms to the provisions of this Section.

5. The obligation to provide compensation under paragraph 1 and the right to suspend the application of concessions in accordance with paragraph 2 shall cease on the termination of the bilateral safeguard measure.

6. Any compensation shall be based on the total period of application of the bilateral safeguard measure including, if applicable, the period of application of any provisional safeguard measure.

II. Global Safeguard Measures

Article 7.8: Global Safeguard Measures

1. Each Party retains its rights and obligations under Article XIX of the GATT 1994 and the WTO Safeguards Agreement. This Agreement does not confer any additional rights or obligations on the Parties with regard to global safeguard measures taken under Article XIX of the GATT 1994 and the Safeguards Agreement.

2. A Party taking a global safeguard measure shall exclude imports of an originating good of the other Party as long as its share of imports of the product concerned in the importing Party does not exceed three per cent of total imports of the concerned product, provided that developing country Members with less than three per cent import share collectively account for not more than nine per cent of total imports of the product concerned.

3. Neither Party shall apply, with respect to the same good, at the same time:

   (a) a bilateral or provisional safeguard measure; and

   (b) a measure under Article XIX of the GATT 1994 and the Safeguards Agreement.

On receipt by a Party's competent authority of a properly documented countervailing duty application with respect to imports from another Party and before initiating an investigation, the Party shall, as appropriate and in conformity with the procedural rules provided for in the domestic laws and regulations of the Party, provide written notification to the other Party of its receipt of the application and afford the other Party a meeting to consult with its competent authority regarding the application.

Article 7.11: Disclosure of Essential Facts

The investigation authority of a Party shall ensure, before a final determination made, disclosure of all essential facts under consideration which form the basis for the decision whether to applying definitive measures. This is without prejudice to Article 6.5 of the Anti-Dumping Agreement and Article 12.4 of the SCM Agreement. Disclosures shall be made in writing and allow interested parties sufficient time to make their comments.

1. With respect to the services sectors inscribed in its Schedule of Specific Commitments, and subject to any conditions and qualifications set out therein, each Party shall accord to services and service suppliers of the other Party, in respect of all measures affecting the supply of services, treatment no less favourable than that it accords to its own like services and service suppliers.[7]

2. A Party may meet the requirement in paragraph 1 by according to services and service suppliers of the other Party either formally identical treatment or formally different treatment to that it accords to its own like services and service suppliers.

3. Formally identical or formally different treatment by a Party shall be considered to be less favourable if it modifies the conditions of competition in favour of services or service suppliers of that Party compared to the like service or service suppliers of the other Party.

[6] Subparagraph 2(c) does not cover measures of a Party which limit inputs for the supply of services.

[7] Specific commitments assumed under this Article shall not be construed to require either Party to compensate for any inherent competitive disadvantages which result from the foreign character of the relevant services or service suppliers.

Article 8.7: Additional Commitments

The Parties may negotiate commitments with respect to measures affecting trade in services not subject to scheduling under Articles 8.5 and 8.6, including those regarding qualification, standards or licensing matters. Such commitments shall be inscribed in that Party's Schedule of Specific Commitments.

Article 8.8: Modification of Schedules

Upon written request by a Party, the Parties shall hold consultations to consider any modification or withdrawal of a specific commitment in the requesting Party's Schedule of Specific Commitments. The consultations shall be held within three months after the requesting Party made its request. In the consultations, the Parties shall aim to ensure that a general level of mutually advantageous commitments no less favourable to trade than that provided for in the Schedule of Specific Commitments prior to such consultations is maintained. Modifications of Schedules are subject to any procedures adopted by the Joint Committee established in Chapter 16 (Administration of the Agreement).

Article 8.9: Domestic Regulation

1. In sectors where specific commitments are undertaken, each Party shall ensure that all measures of general application affecting trade in services are administered in a reasonable, objective, and impartial manner.

2. (a) Each Party shall maintain or institute as soon as practicable judicial, arbitral or administrative tribunals or procedures which provide, on request of an affected service supplier, for the prompt review of, and where justified, appropriate remedies for, administrative decisions affecting trade in services. Where such procedures are not independent of the agency entrusted with the administrative decision concerned, the Party shall ensure that the procedures in fact provide for an objective and impartial review.

(b) The provisions of subparagraph (a) shall not be construed to require a Party to institute such tribunals or procedures where this would be inconsistent with its constitutional structure or the nature of its legal system.

3. Where authorisation is required for the supply of a service on which a specific commitment under this Agreement has been made, the competent authorities of each Party shall:

(a) within a reasonable period of time after the submission of an application considered complete under domestic laws and regulations, inform the applicant of the decision concerning the application;

(b) in the case of an incomplete application, on request of the applicant, identify all the additional information that is required to complete the application and provide the opportunity to remedy deficiencies within a reasonable timeframe;

(c) on request of the applicant, provide without undue delay information concerning the status of the application; and

(d) if an application is terminated or denied, to the extent possible, inform the applicant in writing and without delay the reasons for such action. The applicant will have the possibility of resubmitting, at its discretion, a new application.

4. With a view to ensuring that measures relating to qualification requirements and procedures, technical standards, and licensing requirements do not constitute unnecessary barriers to trade in services, in sectors where specific commitments are undertaken, the Parties shall aim to ensure that such requirements are:

(a) based on objective and transparent criteria, such as competence and the ability to supply the service;

(b) not more burdensome than necessary to ensure the quality of the service; and

(c) in the case of licensing procedures, not in themselves a restriction on the supply of the service.

5. In determining whether a Party is in conformity with the obligation under paragraph 4, account shall be taken of international standards of relevant international organisations applied by that Party.[8]

6. In sectors where specific commitments regarding professional services are undertaken, each Party shall provide for adequate procedures to verify the competence of professionals of the other Party.

7. The Parties shall jointly review the results of the negotiations on disciplines on domestic regulation, pursuant to Article VI.4 of the GATS, with a view of incorporating them into this Chapter.

[8] The term "relevant international organisations" refers to international bodies whose membership is open to the relevant bodies of the Parties to this Agreement.

Article 8.10: Recognition

1. For the purposes of the fulfilment, in whole or in part, of its standards or criteria for the authorisation, licensing or certification of service suppliers, and subject to paragraph 3, a Party may recognise, or encourage its relevant competent bodies to recognise, the education or experience obtained, requirements met, or licences or certifications granted in the other Party. Such recognition, which may be achieved through harmonisation or otherwise, may be based upon an agreement or arrangement between the Parties or their relevant competent bodies, or may be accorded autonomously.

2. Where a Party recognises, by agreement or arrangement, the education or experience obtained, requirements met, or licenses or certifications granted in the territory of a non-party, that Party shall afford the other Party adequate opportunity to negotiate its accession to such an agreement or arrangement, whether existing or future, or to negotiate a comparable agreement or arrangement with it. Where a Party accords recognition autonomously, it shall afford adequate opportunity for the other Party to demonstrate that the education, experience, licences, or certifications obtained or requirements met in that other Party's territory should also be recognised.

3. A Party shall not accord recognition in a manner which would constitute a means of discrimination between the other Party and non-Parties in the application of its standards or criteria for the authorisation, licensing or certification of service suppliers, or a disguised restriction on trade in services.

4. The Parties agree to encourage, where possible, the relevant bodies in their respective territories responsible for issuance and recognition of professional and vocational qualifications to:

   (a) strengthen cooperation and to explore possibilities for mutual recognition of respective professional and vocational qualifications; and

   (b) pursue mutually acceptable standards and criteria for licensing and certification with respect to service sectors of mutual importance to the Parties.

Article 8.11: Payments and Transfers

1. Except under the circumstances envisaged in Article 8.15, a Party shall not apply restrictions on international transfers and payments for current transactions relating to its specific commitments.

2. Nothing in this Chapter shall affect the rights and obligations of the Parties as members of the International Monetary Fund under the Articles of Agreement of the Fund, including the use of exchange actions which are in conformity with the Articles of Agreement, provided that a Party shall not impose restrictions on any capital transactions inconsistently with its specific commitments regarding such transactions, except under Article 8.15 or at the request of the International Monetary Fund.

Article 8.12: Monopolies and Exclusive Service Suppliers

The rights and obligations of the Parties in respect of monopolies and exclusive service suppliers shall be governed by paragraphs 1, 2, and 5, of Article VIII of the GATS, which are hereby incorporated into and made part of this Agreement.

Article 8.13: Business Practices

The rights and obligations of the Parties in respect of business practices shall be governed by Article IX of the GATS, which is hereby incorporated into and made part of this Agreement.

Article 8.14: Safeguard Measures

The Parties note the multilateral negotiations pursuant to Article X of GATS on the question of emergency safeguard measures based on the principle of non-discrimination. Upon the conclusion of such multilateral negotiations, the Parties shall jointly review the results for the purpose of discussing appropriate amendments to this Chapter so as to incorporate the results of such multilateral negotiations.

Article 8.15: Restrictions to Safeguard the Balance-of-Payments

1. The Parties shall endeavour to avoid the imposition of restrictions to safeguard the balance of payments.

2. Where any of the Parties to this Agreement is in serious balance of payments difficulties, or under threat thereof, it may adopt or maintain restrictive measures with regard to trade in services, including on payments and transfers.

3. The rights and obligations of the Parties in respect of such restrictions shall be governed by paragraphs 1 to 3 of Article XII of the GATS, which are hereby incorporated into and made part of this Agreement. A Party adopting or maintaining such restrictions shall promptly notify the Joint Committee thereof.

Article 8.16: Denial of Benefits

1. A Party may deny the benefits of this Agreement to a service supplier that is a juridical person, if persons of a non-Party own or control that juridical person and the denying Party:

   (a) does not maintain diplomatic relations with the non-Party and that non-Party is not a Member of the WTO; or

   (b) adopts or maintains measures with respect to the non-Party or a person of the non-Party that prohibit transactions with the juridical person or that would be violated or circumvented if the benefits of this Agreement were accorded to the juridical person.

2. In the case of the supply of a maritime transport service, if it establishes that the service is supplied:

   (a) by a vessel registered under the laws and regulations of a non-Party, and

   (b) by a person of a non-Party which operates and/or uses the vessel in whole or in part.

Article 8.17: Review

With the objective of further liberalising trade in services between them, the Parties agree to jointly review their Schedules of Specific Commitments, taking into account any services liberalization developments as a result of on-going work under the auspices of the WTO.

Article 8.18: Annexes

The following Annexes form part of this Chapter:

ANNEX 8B
TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICES

Article 1: Scope and Definitions

1. This Annex shall apply to measures by Parties affecting trade in public telecommunications transport networks and services. It shall not apply to measures relating to broadcasting or cable distribution of radio or television programming, except to ensure that cable or broadcast service suppliers may have access to and use of public telecommunications transport services.[1]

2. This Annex shall apply subject to laws, regulations, and license conditions, as applicable within the territory of each Party. For greater clarity, for provision of services covered under this Annex, a service supplier is required to obtain a license from the regulatory authority.

3. Nothing in this Annex shall be construed to:

   (a) require a Party to authorise a service supplier of the other Party to establish, construct, acquire, lease, operate, or provide telecommunications networks or services, other than the former Party's commitments under Annex 8A;

   (b) require a Party to compel any service supplier under its jurisdiction to establish, construct, acquire, lease, operate, or provide telecommunications transport networks or services where such networks or services are not offered to the public generally;

   (c) require a Party to compel any service supplier exclusively engaged in the broadcast or cable distribution of radio or television programming to make available its broadcast or cable facilities as a public telecommunications transport network; or

   (d) prevent a Party from prohibiting persons operating private networks from using their networks to supply public telecommunications transport networks or services to third parties.

4. For the purpose of this Annex:

A regulatory authority means the body or bodies authorized with any of the regulatory tasks assigned in relation to the issues mentioned in this Annex;

[1] "Broadcasting" shall be defined as provided for in the relevant domestic law of each Party.

Dispute resolution body means a domestic public body within the relevant Party's jurisdiction authorized with resolving disputes;

Essential facilities means facilities of a public telecommunications transport network or service that:

(a) are exclusively or predominantly provided by a single or limited number of suppliers; and

(b) cannot feasibly be economically or technically substituted in order to supply a service;

Interconnection means linking with suppliers providing public telecommunications networks or services in order to allow the users of one supplier to communicate with users of another supplier and to access services provided by another service supplier;

Leased circuits means leased telecommunications facilities between two or more designated points that are set aside for the dedicated use of, or availability to, particular users;

Major supplier means a supplier which has the ability to materially affect the terms of participation (having regard to price and supply) in the relevant market for basic telecommunications services as a result of:

(a) control over essential facilities; or

(b) the use of its position in the market.

Public telecommunications transport network means the public telecommunications infrastructure which permits telecommunications between and among defined network termination points;

Public telecommunications transport service means any telecommunications transport service required, explicitly or in effect, by a Party to be offered to the public generally. Such services may include, inter alia, telegraph, telephone, telex, and data transmission typically involving the real-time transmission of customer-supplied information between two or more points without any end-to-end change in the form of the customer's information;

Telecommunications means the transport of electromagnetic signals such as sound, data image and any combination thereof. The sector of telecommunications services does not cover the economic activity consisting of content provision which requires telecommunications services for its transport.

Article 2: Competitive Safeguards

1. Each Party shall adopt or maintain appropriate measures for the purpose of preventing suppliers who, alone or together, are a major supplier from engaging in or continuing anti-competitive practices.

2. The anti-competitive practices referred to in paragraph 1 shall include, in particular:

   (a) engaging in anti-competitive cross-subsidization;

   (b) using information obtained from competitors with anti-competitive results; and

   (c) not making available to other suppliers of public telecommunications transport networks or services, on a timely basis, technical information about essential facilities and commercially relevant information which are necessary for them to provide services.

Article 3: Interconnection[2]

1. Any supplier licensed to provide telecommunications services shall have rights of interconnection with other providers of publicly available telecommunications networks and services, in such manner as may be prescribed by a Party's laws and regulations. Interconnection rates should in principle be based on cost or be based on otherwise regulated rates for the suppliers concerned.

2. An interconnection point in the major supplier's network shall be subject to negotiations between the service suppliers and to technical feasibility. In the event that the service suppliers encounter difficulties with said negotiations, the competent authority shall be able to intervene and rule, in accordance with the Parties' relevant regulations. Such negotiations shall ensure that interconnection agreements are concluded:

   (a) under non-discriminatory terms, conditions (including technical standards and specifications) and rates[3] and of a quality no less favorable than that provided for its own like services or for like services of non-affiliated service suppliers or for its subsidiaries or other affiliates; and

   (b) in a timely fashion, on terms, conditions (including technical standards and specifications) and at cost-oriented rates that are transparent, reasonable, having regard to economic feasibility,

[2] For greater certainty, the term "interconnection", as used in this Annex, does not include access to unbundled network elements.

[3] For greater certainty, interconnection rates may be commercially negotiated between suppliers of public telecommunications transport networks or services.

and sufficiently unbundled so that the supplier of public telecommunications transport networks or services need not pay for network components or facilities that it does not require for the services to be supplied.

3. Each Party shall ensure that a supplier of public telecommunications transport networks or services in its territory does not use or provide commercially sensitive or confidential information of, or relating to, users acquired as a result of interconnection arrangements other than for the purpose of providing these services.

4. Nothing in this Annex restricts the right of a Party to protect personal data, personal privacy and the confidentiality of individual records and accounts, and other information protected under law.

Article 4: Universal Service

Each Party has the right to define the kind of universal service obligation it wishes to have. Such obligation shall not be regarded as anti-competitive per se, provided that they are administered in a transparent, objective, non-discriminatory, and neutral manner with respect to competition, and are not more burdensome than necessary for the kind of universal service defined by the Party.

Article 5: Licensing Procedure

1. Where a license is required for the supply of a public telecommunications transport network or service, the competent authority of a Party shall make the following publicly available:

   (a) the terms and conditions for such a license; and

   (b) the period of time normally required to reach a decision concerning an application for a license.

2. The competent authority of a Party shall notify the applicant of the outcome of its application without undue delay after a decision has been taken. In case a decision is taken to deny an application for a license, the competent authority of a Party shall make known to the applicant, upon request, the reason for the denial.

Article 6: Independent Regulatory Authority

1. Each Party's telecommunications regulatory authority shall be separate from, and not accountable to, any supplier of public telecommunications transport networks or services.

2. Each Party shall ensure that the decisions of, and the procedures used by, its telecommunications regulatory authority are impartial with respect to all market participants.

Article 7: Scarce Resources

1. Each Party shall ensure that its procedures for the allocation and use of scarce telecommunications resources, including frequencies and numbers, are carried out in an objective, timely, transparent, and non-discriminatory manner. Each Party shall make publicly available the current state of allocated frequency bands, but detailed identification of frequencies allocated for specific government uses shall not be required.

2. When assigning a spectrum for commercial telecommunications services, each Party shall endeavor to rely as a rule on market-based approaches, taking full account of the promotion of competition and public interests.

Article 8: Resolution of Telecommunications Disputes

Each Party shall ensure that:

(a) a supplier of public telecommunications networks or services of the other Party may submit a recourse to the former Party's regulatory authority or other dispute resolution body to resolve telecommunications disputes regarding major suppliers in accordance with the laws and regulations of the former Party;

(b) a supplier that has requested interconnection with a major supplier, has recourse to its regulatory authority to resolve disputes regarding appropriate terms, conditions and rates for interconnection with that major supplier within a reasonable timeframe; and

(c) suppliers of public telecommunications networks or services aggrieved by the decisions of its regulatory authority have recourse to appeal to an independent administrative body and/or a court in accordance with the Party's laws and regulations.

Article 9: Transparency

Each Party shall ensure that relevant information on conditions affecting access to and use of public telecommunications transport networks and services is publicly available, including:

(a) tariffs and other terms and conditions of service;

(b) specifications of technical interfaces with such networks and services;

(c) information on bodies responsible for the preparation and adoption of standards affecting such access and use;

(d) conditions applying to attachment of terminal or other equipment to the public telecommunications network; and

(e) notifications, permits, registration or licensing requirements, if any.

Article 10: Flexibility in the Choice of Technologies

1. Neither Party may prevent suppliers of public telecommunications transport networks and services from having the flexibility to choose the technologies that they use to supply their services, including commercial mobile wireless services, subject to requirements that the Party believes to be necessary to satisfy legitimate public policy interests, provided that any measure restricting such choice is not prepared, adopted, or applied in a manner that creates unnecessary obstacles to trade.

2. For greater certainty, nothing in this Annex shall be construed to prevent a telecommunications regulatory body from requiring the proper license or other authorization to supply each public telecommunications transport service.

Article 11: Access and Use[4]

1. Each Party shall ensure that any service supplier of the other Party is accorded access to and use of public telecommunications networks and services, including leased circuits, offered in its territory or across its borders on a timely basis, and on terms and conditions that are reasonable, non-discriminatory, and transparent, inter alia, through paragraphs 2 through 6, subject to the terms and conditions of the license granted to the service supplier.

2. Subject to paragraphs 5 and 6, each Party shall ensure that service suppliers of the other Party are permitted to:

(a) purchase or lease and attach terminal or other equipment which interfaces with a public telecommunications network and which is necessary to supply their services;

[4] For greater certainty, this Article does not prohibit any Party from requiring a service supplier to obtain a license to supply a public telecommunications network or service in its territory.

(b) connect leased or owned circuits with public telecommunications transport networks and services or with circuits leased or owned by another service supplier; and

(c) use operating protocols of their choice.

3. Each Party shall ensure that service suppliers of the other Party may use public telecommunications transport networks and services for the movement of information in its territory or across its borders, including for intra-corporate communications of such service suppliers, and for access to information contained in databases or otherwise stored in machine-readable form in the territory of any Party.

4. Notwithstanding paragraph 3, a Party may take measures that are necessary to ensure the security and confidentiality of messages and to protect the personal information of end users of public telecommunications networks or services, provided that such measures are not applied in a manner which would constitute a means of arbitrary or unjustifiable discrimination or a disguised restriction on trade in services.

5. Each Party shall ensure that no condition is imposed on access to and use of public telecommunications networks and services, other than as necessary to:

(a) safeguard the public service responsibilities of suppliers of public telecommunications networks and services, in particular their ability to make their networks or services available to the public generally;

(b) protect the technical integrity of public telecommunications networks or services; or

(c) protect public interest or safety.

6. Provided that they satisfy the criteria set out in paragraph 5, conditions for access to and use of public telecommunications networks and services may include:

(a) a requirement to use specified technical interfaces, including interface protocols, for connection with public telecommunications networks and services;

(b) a requirement, where necessary, for the interoperability of public telecommunications networks and services;

(c) type approval of terminal or other equipment which interfaces with public telecommunications networks and technical requirements relating to the attachment of such equipment to public telecommunications networks;

(d) a restriction on connection of leased or owned circuits with public telecommunications networks or services or with circuits leased or owned by other service suppliers; or

(e) a requirement for notification and licensing.

Article 12: Treatment by Major Suppliers

Each Party shall ensure that a major supplier in its territory accords to suppliers of public telecommunications networks or services of the other Party treatment no less favourable than that such major supplier accords in like circumstances to its subsidiaries and affiliates, or non-affiliated service suppliers, regarding:

(a) the availability, provisioning, rates, or quality of like public telecommunications services; and

(b) the availability of technical interfaces necessary for interconnection.

Article 13: Provisioning and Pricing of Leased Circuit Services

Each Party shall ensure that a major supplier in its territory provides suppliers of public telecommunications networks or services of the other Party with leased circuit services that are public telecommunications services, on a timely basis, and on terms and conditions and at rates that are reasonable, non-discriminatory, and transparent.

Article 14: Unbundling of Network Elements

Each Party shall endeavour to ensure that a major supplier in its territory offers access to network elements on an unbundled basis on terms and conditions that are reasonable, non-discriminatory, and transparent for the supply of public telecommunications services. A Party may determine the network elements required to be made available in its territory, and the suppliers that may obtain those elements, in accordance with its laws and regulations.

Article 15: International Mobile Roaming

1. The Parties shall endeavour to cooperate on promoting transparent and reasonable rates for international mobile roaming services that can help promote the growth of trade among the Parties and enhance consumer welfare.

2. A Party may take steps to enhance transparency and competition with respect to international mobile roaming services, such as:

   (a) ensuring that information regarding retail rates is easily accessible to consumers; and

   (b) minimising impediments to roaming, whereby consumers when visiting the territory of a Party from the territory of the other Party can access telecommunications services using the device of their choice.

3. The Parties recognise that a Party, where it has the authority to do so, may choose to promote competition with respect to international mobile roaming rates including through commercial arrangements, or to adopt or maintain measures affecting rates for wholesale or retail international roaming services with a view to ensuring that the rates are reasonable. If a Party considers it appropriate, it may cooperate on and implement mechanisms with the other Party to facilitate the implementation of those measures, including by entering into arrangements with the other Party.

4. If a Party (hereinafter referred to as "the first Party" in this paragraph) chooses to regulate rates or conditions for wholesale or retail international mobile roaming services, it shall ensure that a supplier of public telecommunications services of the other Party (hereinafter referred to as "the second Party" in this paragraph) has access to the regulated rates or conditions for wholesale or retail international mobile roaming services for its customers roaming in the territory of the first Party if the second Party has entered into an arrangement with the first Party to reciprocally regulate rates or conditions for wholesale or retail international mobile roaming services for suppliers of the two Parties.[5] The first Party may require suppliers of the second Party to fully utilise

[5] For greater certainty:

   (a) no Party shall, solely on the basis of any obligations owed to it by the first Party under a most-favoured-nation provision, or under a telecommunications-specific non-discrimination provision, in any international trade agreement, seek or obtain for its suppliers the access to regulated rates or conditions for wholesale or retail international mobile roaming services that is provided under this Article.

   (b) access to the rates or conditions regulated by the first Party shall be available to a supplier of the second Party only if the regulated rates or conditions are reasonably comparable to those reciprocally regulated under the arrangement. The telecommunications regulatory body of the first Party shall, in the case of a disagreement, determine whether the rates or conditions are reasonably comparable. For the purposes of this footnote, "rates or conditions that are reasonably comparable" means rates or conditions agreed to be such by the relevant suppliers or, in the case of a disagreement, determined to be such by the telecommunications regulatory body of the first Party.

commercial negotiations to reach agreement on the terms for accessing such rates or conditions.

particular words including personal names, letters, numerals, figurative elements, three dimensional shapes and combinations of colours as well as any combination of such signs, shall be eligible for registration as trademarks. Where signs are not inherently capable of distinguishing the relevant goods or services, Parties may make registrability depend on distinctiveness acquired through use. Each Party shall endeavor to protect sound and smell marks.

Article 11.14: Use of Identical or Similar Signs

Each Party shall provide that the owner of a registered trademark has the exclusive right to prevent third parties that do not have the owner's consent from using in the course of trade identical or similar signs, for goods or services that are identical or similar to those goods or services in respect of which the owner's trademark is registered, where such use would result in a likelihood of confusion. In the case of the use of an identical sign for identical goods or services, a likelihood of confusion shall be presumed.

Article 11.15: Exceptions

A Party may provide limited exceptions to the rights conferred by a trademark, such as fair use of descriptive terms, provided that those exceptions take account of the legitimate interest of the owner of the trademark and of third parties.

Article 11.16: Well-Known Trademarks

1. No Party shall require as a condition for determining that a trademark is well-known that the trademark has been registered in the Party or in another jurisdiction, included on a list of well-known trademarks, or given prior recognition as a well-known trademark.

2. Article 6bis of the Paris Convention shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to goods or services that are not identical or similar to those identified by a registered well-known trademark[1], provided that use of that trademark in relation to those goods or services would indicate a connection between those goods or services and the owner of the trademark, and provided that the interests of the owner of the trademark are likely to be damaged by such use.

3. Each Party recognises the importance of the Joint Recommendation Concerning Provisions on the Protection of Well-Known Marks as adopted by the Assembly of the Paris Union for the Protection of Industrial Property and the General Assembly of WIPO at the Thirty-Fourth Series of Meetings of the Assemblies of the Member States of WIPO September 20 to 29, 1999.

4. Each Party shall provide for appropriate measures to refuse the application or cancel the registration and prohibit the use of a trademark that is identical or similar to a well-known trademark[2], for identical or similar goods or services, if the use of that trademark is likely to cause confusion with the prior well-known trademark. A Party may also provide such measures including in cases in which the subsequent trademark is likely to deceive.

Article 11.17: Procedural Aspects of Examination, Opposition and Cancellation

Each Party shall provide a system for the examination and registration of trademarks which includes, among other things:

(a) communicating to the applicant in writing, which may be by electronic means, the reasons for any refusal to register a trademark;

(c) providing an opportunity to oppose the registration of a trademark or to seek cancellation of a trademark; and

(d) requiring administrative decisions in opposition and cancellation proceedings to be reasoned and in writing, which may be provided by electronic means.

Article 11.18: Electronic Trademarks System

Each Party shall endeavor to provide:

(a) a system for the electronic application for, and maintenance of, trademarks; and

[2] The Parties understand that a well-known trademark is one that was already well-known before, as determined by a Party, the application for, registration of, or use of the first-mentioned trademark.

(b) a publicly available electronic information system, including an online database, of trademark applications and of registered trademarks.

Article 11.19: Classification of Goods and Services

Each Party shall adopt or maintain a trademark classification system that is consistent with the Nice Agreement Concerning the International Classification of Goods and Services for the Purposes of the Registration of Marks, done at Nice, on 15 June 1957, as revised and amended (Nice Classification). Each Party shall provide that:

(a) registrations and the publications of applications indicate the goods and services by their names, grouped according to the classes established by the Nice Classification;[3] and

(b) goods or services may not be considered as being similar to each other on the ground that, in any registration or publication, they are classified in the same class of the Nice Classification. Conversely, each Party shall provide that goods or services may not be considered as being dissimilar from each other on the ground that, in any registration or publication, they are classified in different classes of the Nice Classification.

Article 11.20: Term of Protection for Trademarks

Section D: Country Names

Section E: Geographical Indications

[3] A Party that relies on translations of the Nice Classification shall follow updated versions of the Nice Classification to the extent that official translations have been issued and published.

Article 11.22: Protection or Recognition of Geographical Indications

1. Geographical indication means an indication that identifies a good as originating in the territory of a Party, or a region or locality in that territory, where a given quality, reputation or other characteristic of the good is essentially attributable to its geographical origin.

2. The Parties recognise that geographical indications may be protected through trademark or sui generis system.

Article 11.23: Administrative Procedures for the Protection of Geographical Indications

If a Party provides administrative procedures for the protection or recognition of geographical indications, whether through a trademark or sui generis system, that Party shall with respect to applications for that protection or petitions ensure that its laws and regulations governing the filing of those applications or petitions are readily available to the public and clearly set out the procedures for these actions.

Article 11.24: Date of Protection of a Geographical Indication

If a Party grants protection or recognition to a geographical indication that protection or recognition shall commence no earlier than the filing date[4] in the Party or the registration date in the Party, as applicable.

Section F: Patents and Industrial Design

Article 11.25: Grace Period

1. Each Party shall disregard information contained in a public disclosure of an invention related to an application to register a patent[5] if the public disclosure:

   (a) was made by the applicant or his predecessors or a person that obtained the information from the applicant or his predecessors inside or outside the territory of a Party; and

[4] For greater certainty, the filing date referred to in this Article includes, as applicable, the priority filing date under the Paris Convention.

(c) providing an opportunity for interested parties to seek cancellation or invalidation of a registered patent or industrial design, and in addition may provide an opportunity for interested parties to oppose the registration of patent or industrial design; and

(d) making decisions in opposition, cancellation, or invalidation proceedings to be reasoned and in writing, which may be delivered by electronic means.

Article 11.27: Amendments, Corrections, and Observations

Each Party shall provide an applicant for a patent or industrial design with at least one opportunity to make amendments, corrections or observations in connection with its application within the boundary of the initial disclosure according to the domestic law and rules of each Party.

Article 11.28: Industrial Design Protection

1. The Parties shall ensure that requirements for securing or enforcing registered industrial design protection do not unreasonably impair the opportunity to obtain or enforce such protection.

2. The duration of protection available for registered industrial designs shall be in total at least 15 years from the date of filing.

Article 11.29: Exceptions

A Party may provide limited exceptions to the exclusive rights conferred by a patent or an industrial design, provided that such exceptions do not unreasonably conflict with a normal exploitation of the patent or an industrial design and do not unreasonably prejudice the legitimate interests of the right holder, taking account of the legitimate interests of third parties.

Section F: Copyright and Related Rights

Article 11.30: Definitions

For the purposes of Article 11.31 and Articles 11.33 through 11.40, the following definitions apply with respect to performers and producers of phonograms:

(a) broadcasting means the transmission by wireless means for public reception of sounds or of images and sounds or of the representations thereof; such transmission by satellite is also "broadcasting"; transmission of encrypted signals is "broadcasting" if the means for decrypting are provided to the public by the broadcasting organisation or with its consent;

(b) communication to the public of a performance or a phonogram means the transmission to the public by any medium, other than by broadcasting, of sounds of a performance or the sounds or the representations of sounds fixed in a phonogram;

(c) fixation means the embodiment of sounds, or of the representations thereof, from which they can be perceived, reproduced, or communicated through a device;

(d) performance means a performance unfixed or fixed in a phonogram unless otherwise specified;

(e) performers means actors, singers, musicians, dancers, and other persons who act, sing, deliver, declaim, play in, interpret, or otherwise perform literary or artistic works or traditional culture expressions (TCE);

(f) phonogram means the fixation of the sounds of a performance or of other sounds, or of a representation of sounds, other than in the form of a fixation incorporated in a cinematographic or other audio-visual work;

(g) producer of a phonogram means a person that takes the initiative and has the responsibility for the first fixation of the sounds of a performance or other sounds, or the representations of sounds;

(h) publication of a performance or phonogram means the offering of copies of the performance or the phonogram to the public, with the consent of the right holder, and provided that copies are offered to the public in reasonable quantity;

(i) with respect to copyright and related rights, the term right to authorise or prohibit refers to exclusive rights.

Article 11.31: Right of Reproduction

Each Party shall provide[6] to authors, performers and producers of phonograms[7] the exclusive right to authorise or prohibit all reproduction of their works, performances or phonograms in any manner or form, including in electronic form.

Article 11.32: Right of Communication to the Public

[6] For greater certainty, the Parties understand that it is a matter for each Party's law to prescribe that works, performances or phonograms in general or any specified categories of works, performances and phonograms are not protected by copyright or related rights unless the work, performance or phonogram has been fixed in some material form.

[7] References to "authors, performers, and producers of phonograms" refer also to any of their successors in interest.

Without prejudice to Articles 11(1)(ii), 11 bis(1)(i) and (ii), 11ter(1)(ii), 14(1)(ii), and 14bis(1) of the Berne Convention, each Party shall provide to authors the exclusive right to authorise or prohibit the communication to the public of their works, by wire or wireless means, including the making available to the public of their works in such a way that members of the public may access these works from a place and at a time individually chosen by them.[8]

Article 11.33: Right of Distribution

Each Party shall provide to authors, performers and producers of phonograms the exclusive right to authorise or prohibit the making available to the public of the original and copies[9] of their works, performances and phonograms through sale or other transfer of ownership.

Article 11.34: Related Rights

1. Each Party shall accord the rights provided for in this Chapter with respect to performers and producers of phonograms: to the performers and producers of phonograms that are nationals[10] of the other Party; and to performances or phonograms first published or first fixed[11] in the territory of the other Party.[12] A performance or phonogram shall be considered first published in the territory of a Party if it is published in the territory of that Party within 30 days of its original publication.

2. Each Party shall provide to performers the exclusive right to authorise or prohibit:

   (a) the broadcasting and communication to the public of their unfixed performances, unless the performance is already a broadcast performance; and

[8] The Parties understand that the mere provision of physical facilities for enabling or making a communication does not in itself amount to communication within the meaning of this Chapter or the Berne Convention. The Parties further understand that nothing in this Article precludes a Party from applying Article 10bis(2) of the Berne Convention.

[9] The expressions "copies" and "original and copies", that are subject to the right of distribution in this Article, refer exclusively to fixed copies that can be put into circulation as tangible objects.

[10] For the purposes of determining criteria for eligibility under this Article, with respect to performers, a Party may treat "nationals" as those who would meet the criteria for eligibility under Article 3 of the WPPT.

[11] For the purposes of this Article, fixation means the finalization of the master tape or its equivalent.

[12] For greater certainty, in this paragraph with respect to performances or phonograms first published or first fixed in the territory of a Party, a Party may apply the criterion of publication, or alternatively, the criterion of fixation, or both. For greater certainty, consistent with Article 11.7 of this agreement, each Party shall accord to performances and phonograms first published or first fixed in the territory of another Party treatment no less favourable than it accords to performances or phonograms first published or first fixed in its own territory.

(b) the fixation of their unfixed performances.

3. Each Party shall provide to performers and producers of phonograms the exclusive right to authorise or prohibit the broadcasting or any communication to the public of their performances or phonograms, by wire or wireless means,[13, 14] and the making available to the public of those performances or phonograms in such a way that members of the public may access them from a place and at a time individually chosen by them.

4. Notwithstanding paragraph 3 and Article 11.36, the application of the right referred to in paragraph 3 to analog transmissions and non-interactive free over-the-air broadcasts, and exceptions or limitations to this right for those activities, is a matter of each Party's law.[15]

Article 11.35: Term of Protection for Copyright and Related Rights

Each Party shall provide that in cases in which the term of protection of a work, performance or phonogram is to be calculated:[16]

(a) on the basis of the life of a natural person, the term shall be not less than the life of the author and 50 years after the author's death;[17] and

(b) on a basis other than the life of a natural person, the term shall be:

[13] With respect to broadcasting and communication to the public, a Party may satisfy the obligation by applying Article 15(1) and Article 15(4) of the WPPT and may also apply Article 15(2) of the WPPT, provided that it is done in a manner consistent with that Party's obligations under Article 11.7 of this Agreement.

[14] For greater certainty, the obligation under this paragraph does not include broadcasting or communication to the public, by wire or wireless means, of the sounds or representations of sounds fixed in a phonogram that are incorporated in a cinematographic or other audio-visual work.

[15] For the purposes of this subparagraph the Parties understand that a Party may provide for the retransmission of non-interactive, free over-the-air broadcasts, provided that these retransmissions are lawfully permitted by that Party's government communications authority; any entity engaging in these retransmissions complies with the relevant rules, orders or regulations of that authority; and these retransmissions do not include those delivered and accessed over the Internet. For greater certainty this footnote does not limit a Party's ability to avail itself of this subparagraph.

[16] For greater certainty, in implementing this Article, nothing prevents a Party from promoting certainty for the legitimate use and exploitation of a work, performance or phonogram during its term of protection, consistent with Article 11.36 and that Party's international obligations.

[17] The Parties understand that if a Party provides its nationals a term of copyright protection that exceeds life of the author plus 70 years, nothing in this Article or Article 11.7 shall preclude that Party from applying Article 7(8) of the Berne Convention with respect to the term in excess of the term provided in this subparagraph of protection for works of another Party.

(i) not less than 50 years from the end of the calendar year of the first authorised publication[18] of the work, performance or phonogram; or

(ii) anonymous and pseudonymous works are protected for a period of 50 years as of the beginning of the calendar year subsequent to the year in which such works have been first published,[19]

(iii) performance or phonogram, not less than 50 years from the end of the calendar year of the creation of the work, performance or phonogram.

Article 11.36: Limitations and Exceptions

1. With respect to this Section, each Party shall confine limitations or exceptions to exclusive rights to certain special cases that do not conflict with a normal exploitation of the work, performance or phonogram, and do not unreasonably prejudice the legitimate interests of the right holder.

2. This Article does not reduce or extend the scope of applicability of the limitations and exceptions permitted by the TRIPS Agreement, the Berne Convention, the WCT or the WPPT.

Article 11.37: Balance in Copyright and Related Rights Systems

Each Party shall endeavour to achieve an appropriate balance in its copyright and related rights system, among other things by means of limitations or exceptions that are consistent with Article 11.36, including those for the digital environment, giving due consideration to legitimate purposes such as, but not limited to: criticism; comment; news reporting; teaching, scholarship, research, and other similar purposes; and facilitating access to published works for persons who are blind, visually impaired or otherwise print disabled.[20, 21]

Article 11.38: Contractual Transfers

[18] For greater certainty, for the purposes of subparagraph (b), if a Party's law provides for the calculation of term from fixation rather than from the first authorised publication, that Party may continue to calculate the term from fixation.

[19] In case the author of such works has been known or specified or has disclosed his identity, the protection will be lifetime of the author and fifty years thereafter commencing as of the beginning of the calendar year subsequent to the author's death.

[20] As recognised by the Marrakesh Treaty.

[21] For greater certainty, a use that has commercial aspects may in appropriate circumstances be considered to have a legitimate purpose under Article 11.36.

Each Party shall provide that for copyright and related rights, any person acquiring or holding any economic right[22] in a work, performance or phonogram:

(a) may freely and separately transfer that right by contract; and

(b) by virtue of contract, including contracts of employment underlying the creation of works, performances or phonograms, shall be able to exercise that right in that person's own name and enjoy fully the benefits derived from that right.[23]

Article 11.39: Obligations concerning Protection of Technological Measures and Rights Management Information

1. Each Party shall provide adequate legal protection and effective legal remedies against the circumvention of effective technological measures that are used by authors, performers or producers of phonograms in connection with the exercise of their rights as provided under Articles 11.31 through 11.34 of this Agreement, that restrict acts, in respect of their works, performances or phonograms, which are not authorised by the authors, performers or producers of phonograms concerned or permitted by law.

2. Each Party shall provide adequate and effective legal remedies against any person who knowingly, without authorisation removes or alters any electronic rights management information and/or distributes, imports for distribution, broadcasts or communicates to the public, without authority, works or copies of works knowing that electronic rights management information[24] has been removed or altered without authority.

Article 11.40: Collective Management

The Parties recognise the role of collective management societies for copyright and related rights in collecting and distributing royalties based on practices that are fair, efficient, transparent and accountable, which may include appropriate record keeping and reporting mechanisms.

[22] For greater certainty, this provision does not affect the exercise of moral rights.

[23] Nothing in this Article affects a Party's ability to establish: (i) which specific contracts underlying the creation of works, performances or phonograms shall, in the absence of a written agreement, result in a transfer of economic rights by operation of law; and (ii) reasonable limits to protect the interests of the original right holders, taking into account the legitimate interests of the transferees.

[24] For the purpose of clarity, "rights management information" shall be interpreted to be as provided under Article 12 of the WCT.

Section H: Enforcement

Article 11.41: General Obligation in Enforcement

Each Party shall ensure that enforcement procedures as specified in this Section are available under its law so as to permit effective action against any act of infringement of intellectual property rights covered by this Chapter, including expeditious remedies to prevent infringements and remedies that constitute a deterrent to future infringements. These procedures shall be applied in such a manner as to avoid the creation of barriers to legitimate trade and to provide for safeguards against their abuse.

Article 11.42: Border Measures

1. Each Party shall, in conformity with its domestic law and regulations and the provisions of Part III, Section 4 of the TRIPS Agreement adopt or maintain procedures to enable a right holder, who has valid grounds for suspecting that the importations of counterfeit trademark or pirated copyright goods may take place, to lodge an application in writing with the competent authorities, in the Party in which the border measure procedures are applied, for the suspension by that Party's customs authorities of the release into free circulation of such goods.

2. A Party may enable such an application to be made in respect of goods which involve other infringements of intellectual property rights, provided that the requirements of Part III, Section 4 of the TRIPS Agreement are met. A Party may also provide for corresponding procedures concerning the suspension by the customs authorities of the release of infringing goods destined for exportation from their territory in accordance with its domestic laws and regulations.

2. The respondent Party shall promptly comply with the ruling of the Panel. If it is impracticable to comply immediately, the respondent Party shall, no later than 30 days after the delivery of the final report, notify the complaining Party of the length of the reasonable period of time necessary for compliance with the final report and the Parties shall endeavour to agree on the reasonable period of time required for compliance with the final report.

Article 14.20: Reasonable Period of Time for Compliance

1. If the Parties have not agreed on the length of the reasonable period of time, the complaining Party may, no later than 20 days after the date of receipt of the notification made by the respondent Party in accordance with Article 14.19 request in writing the original panel to determine the length of the reasonable period of time. 2. The respondent Party shall, no later than at the date of expiry of the reasonable period of time, deliver a notification to the complaining Party of any measure that it has taken to comply with the final report along with a description on how the measure ensures compliance sufficient to allow the complaining Party to assess the measure before the expiry of the reasonable period of time.

3. Where the Parties disagree on the existence of measures to comply with the final report, or their consistency with the covered provisions, the complaining Party may request in writing the original panel to decide on the matter before compensation can be sought or suspension of benefits can be applied in accordance with Article 14.22.1 (c). Such request shall be notified simultaneously to the respondent Party.

4. The request shall provide the factual and legal basis for the complaint, including the identification of the specific measures at issue and an indication of why any measures taken by the respondent fail to comply with the final report or are otherwise inconsistent with the covered provisions.

5. The panel shall deliver its decision to the Parties within 60 days of the date of delivery of the request.

Article 14.22: Temporary Remedies in Case of Non-Compliance

1. If the respondent Party:

   (a) fails to notify any measure taken to comply with the final report before the expiry of the reasonable period of time;

   (b) notifies the complaining Party in writing that it is not possible to comply with the final report within the reasonable period of time; or

   (c) if the original panel finds that no measure taken to comply exists or that the measure taken to comply with the final report as notified by the Party complained against is inconsistent with the covered provisions;

   The respondent Party shall, on request of the complaining Party, enter into consultations with a view to agreeing on a mutually satisfactory agreement or any necessary compensation.

2. If the parties fail to reach a mutual satisfactory agreement or to agree on compensation within 30 days of the date of receipt of the request made in accordance with paragraph 1, the complaining Party may deliver a written notification to the respondent Party that it intends to suspend the application to that Party of benefits or other obligations under this Agreement. The notification shall specify the level of intended suspension of benefits or other obligations.

3. The complaining Party may begin the suspension of benefits or other obligations referred to in the preceding paragraph 30 days after the date when it served notice on the Party complained against, unless the respondent Party made a request under paragraph 7.

4. The suspension of benefits or other obligations:

   (a) shall be at a level equivalent to the nullification or impairment that is caused by the failure of the respondent Party to comply with the final report; and

   (b) shall be restricted to benefits accruing to the respondent Party under this Agreement.

5. In considering what benefits to suspend in accordance with paragraph 2, the complaining Party shall apply the following principles:

   (a) the complaining Party should first seek to suspend benefits in the same sector or sectors as that affected by the measure that the panel has found to be inconsistent with this Agreement or have caused nullification or impairment;[1]

(b) the complaining Party may suspend benefit in other sectors, if it considers that it is not practicable or effective to suspend benefits or other obligations in the same sector; and

(c) in the selection of the benefits to suspend, the complaining Party shall endeavour to take into consideration those which least disturb the implementation of this Agreement.

6. The suspension of benefits or other obligations shall be temporary and shall only apply until the inconsistency of the measure with the relevant covered provisions which has been found in the final report has been removed, or until the Parties have agreed on a mutually satisfactory agreement or any necessary compensation.

7. If the respondent Party considers that the suspension of benefits does not comply with paragraphs 4 and 5, that Party may request in writing the original panel to examine the matter no later than 15 days after the date of receipt of the notification referred to in paragraph 2. That request shall be notified simultaneously to the complaining Party. The original panel shall notify to the parties its decision on the matter no later than 30 days after the receipt of the request from the respondent Party. Benefits or other obligations shall not be suspended until the original panel has delivered its decision. The suspension of benefits or other obligations shall be consistent with this decision.

Article 14.23: Review of any Measure Taken to Comply After the Adoption of Temporary Remedies

1. Upon the notification by the respondent Party to the complaining Party of the measure taken to comply with the final report:

(a) in a situation where the right to suspend benefits or other obligations has been exercised by the complaining Party in accordance with Article 14.22, the complaining Party shall terminate the suspension of benefits or other obligations no later than 30 days after the date of receipt of the notification, with the exception of the cases referred to in paragraph 2; or

[1] For the purposes of this paragraph, "sector" means:
(i) with respect to goods, all goods;
(ii) with respect to services, a principal sector as identified in the current "Services Sectoral Classification List" which identifies such sectors.

(b) in a situation where necessary compensation has been agreed, the respondent Party may terminate the application of such compensation no later than 30 days after the date of receipt of the notification, with the exception of the cases referred to in paragraph 2.

2. If the Parties do not reach an agreement on whether the measure notified in accordance with paragraph 1 is consistent with the relevant covered provisions within 30 days of the date of receipt of the notification, the complaining Party shall request in writing the original panel to examine the matter. That request shall be notified simultaneously to the respondent Party. The decision of the panel shall be notified to the Parties no later than 30 days after the date of submission of the request. If the panel decides that the measure notified in accordance with paragraph 1 is consistent with the relevant covered provisions, the suspension of benefits or other obligations, or the application of the compensation, shall be terminated no later than 15 days after the date of the decision. If the panel determines that the notified measure achieves only partial compliance with the covered provisions, the level of suspension of benefits or other obligations, or of the compensation, shall be adapted in light of the decision of the panel.

Article 14.24: Suspension and Termination of Proceedings

If both Parties so request, the panel shall suspend for a period agreed by the Parties and not exceeding 12 consecutive months. In the event of a suspension of the work of the panel, the relevant time periods under this Section shall be extended by the same period of time for which the work of the panel was suspended. The panel shall resume its work before the end of the suspension period at the written request of both Parties. If the work of the panel has been suspended for more than 12 consecutive months, the authority of the panel shall lapse and the dispute settlement procedure shall be terminated.

Article 14.25: Choice of Forum

1. Unless otherwise provided in this Article, this Chapter is without prejudice to the rights of the Parties to have recourse to dispute settlement procedures available under other international trade agreements to which they are both Parties.

2. When a dispute arises with regard to the alleged inconsistency of a particular measure with an obligation under this Agreement and a substantially equivalent obligation under another international trade agreement to which both Parties are Party, including the WTO agreements, the complaining Party may select the forum in which to settle the dispute.

3. Once a Party has selected the forum and initiated dispute settlement proceedings under this Chapter or under the other international agreement with respect to the particular measure referred to in paragraph 2, that Party shall not initiate dispute settlement proceedings in another forum with respect to that particular measure unless the forum selected first fails to make findings on the issues in dispute for jurisdictional or procedural reasons.

4. For the purposes of paragraph 3:

   (a) dispute settlement proceedings under this Chapter are deemed to be initiated when a Party requests the establishment of a panel in accordance with Article 14.7;

   (b) dispute settlement proceedings under the WTO Agreement are deemed to be initiated when a Party requests the establishment of a panel in accordance with Article 6 of the DSU; and

   (c) dispute settlement proceedings under any other agreement are deemed to be initiated when a Party requests the establishment of a dispute settlement panel in accordance with the relevant provisions of that agreement.

Article 14.26: Costs
